

BARNSTONEWORTH UTD FC

CENTRAL COAST

Round 10 Winter Soulstice Newsletter

So its Euro 2008 & looking good for Spain, Portugal and the Dutch with Liverpool, Man Utd & Arsenal well represented. Not so good for Chelsea with their French & Czech contingent while I have to give Spurs a mention for Croatia's Luka Modric who they might be buying depending on how much they raffle their squad off for. I'd also better mention West Ham for Freddie Ljungberg/Sweden or has he retired?. Not sure when England kick off yet, just before Scotland maybe? Meanwhile back in the Central Coast "hub" of world football, Terrigal's Barny army marches on with Beijing Olympic Gold, Silver and Bronze positions in the current tables with crucial games coming up. Meanwhile a big thanks to the CCF and TUFC behind the scenes guys for their last minute efforts in organising pitches for us considering the weather - much appreciated.

Training

Weds 7pm to 9PM Terry Oval at Springfield weather permitting. The A's have a make-up game against the Entrance and it's the last week without Maxie I believe with the coaching course ending?

A new Barnstoneworth fan!

This week saw the arrival of Caitlyn Margaret Moran at 8lb 5oz & 50cm, the 1st Grandchild of the venerable Pete Woods. Apparently she's the only thing he hasn't dropped this year as our over 35D's goalie!. For everyone's information, Grandad Pete is our Chairman, Manager of the D's, long term pillar of Barnstoneworth Utd FC and renowned for his 57 stone of muscle sliding tackles, particularly in training. Pete is currently seeking football boots in size 00.

A's Match Report

Wonderful 2-1 result against the old foe to make it a double for the season and keep up the pressure on runaway leaders & next weekends opposition Umina. Neal cancelled out an early goal in the 1st half before Ash wrapped up a deserved win in the 2nd. Man of the match was Yatesy with special mention to Doc Steve & Kev for backing up.

C's Match Report

Bye (but would have been superb) ...and Wyoming lost so not so bad !

D's Match Report

A tough fairly even game against a very tricky and well organised opposition was going well with a fine 1st half goal from Nigel but we couldn't get the crucial 2nd goal and were punished in the dying minutes by an excellent equaliser as Southern never gave up. Man of the match was Mark Leadbeatter on a bloody cold afternoon up the Mountain. Who'd have thought you'd get ice cold sleet in Australia?

Punters Club

Not a dickiebird this week but won't name and shame the tipster (as don't know who it was)

Dr Goodvibe

Another reminder for Ed's band Dr Goodvibe and friends playing at Lizotte's Friday 27th. As Leslie Crowther would say Come on Down (can't remember what the show was though?)
