Round 16 Newsletter

This weeks (late) newsletter is dedicated to poor old Cadel Evans for peddling halfway round France for 3 weeks up and down lots of hills only to get beaten by less than a minute. We should also sympathise with Greg Norman who briefly looked like winning the British open after years of being past it but as he's loaded and just shacked up with Chrissie Evert I don't think he'll be that sad. As for cricket, um. Back to the real world, a mixed week of results for the Barny army last week with a win, draw and a loss but all in the top 2 so looking pretty good apart from the A's injury list.

Training

Weds 7 to 9PM at Terry Oval, Springfield.

Robbie's new

Giving new meaning to turbo boost, Robbie Carlisle this week showed off his new Toyota delivery van complete with jet engine. Robbie, inspired by Richard Branson's Space plane unveiled this week, was hoping we could use this as a Barnstoneworth team bus for away games at far flung exotic locations such as Budgie and Doyle "cutting journey times by half lad" . Not sure how many of the team might actually squeeze in tho' (and have you seen Robbie's driving?)

A's Match Report

A bad day at the office would be the best description with the kit turning up late, going down 3-0 by half time and losing Trev to injury in the process to add to the crocked list. Final score was 5-1 to the Entrance but great support from Nigel and Geordie to at least get 11 out on the pitch.

C's Match Report

A hard fought 1-1 draw after Acoca hustled and bustled us out of our recent rythmn in the 1st half and took the lead until a fine equaliser from the penalty spot from Brad led to a barnstorming finish but unfortunately too late to grab the 3 points to stay top.

D's Match Report

A thumping 3-0 win to steam to the top of the table with John & Nigel combining well and stealing all the glory again though a good all round performance on a week with several key players missing. Well they were key players! A fine game from Davey Thomas

Punters Club

Would be nice to say we had a flutter on Cadel Evans to come 2nd in the Tour De France, the Afrikaaners to stuff the English in the cricket (due to the inclusion of a part time Aussie Plumber to open the bowling) and for Liverpool to buy Robbie Keane instead of Gareth Barry but again we were just out. A profit of $3 I believe, oooh.
