

BARNSTONEWORTH UTD FC

Round 18 Newsletter

Apparently Gazza is rethinking his proposed $10 move to Glasgow after Rangers tumbled out of Europe at the hands of FC Kaunas. Gazza is currently perfecting a new double-shuffle move based on the classic Van McCoy track (& skills honed at Tots) and is now considering BUFC's counter offer of a Hahn Light with 3 straws for every goal scored. Meanwhile teammate Andy is considering growing Dreadlocks and an Ed style goatee as a disguise to regain entry to the Terrigal pub after his recent dismissal for viciously lurching into a bouncer after 2 shandy's. As the thick Barnsley accent may be a giveaway, the C's have also suggested a dress, large cleavage & calling him Alice after the Roy "Chubby" Brown/Smokie Ibiza singalong, "who the fork is Alice?" Meantime as the Beijing Olympics kicked off in great style (awesome drumming) a great weekend for Barnstoneworth with all 3 teams making the Finals comfortably - a great achievement by everyone!

Training

Weds 7pm to 9PM Terry Oval at Springfield.

Also in the news

This week with the worrying news that the Arctic may thaw out within 5 years for the 1st time in 16 million years, scientists unveiled their latest idea to combat global warming - eat kangaroo. Apparently their digestive systems don't produce methane so Australia could cut its "flatulence" related carbon emissions by 10 to 15% by switching from cows & sheep to skippy & friends. A roo burger covered with enough BBQ sauce was said to be chewy but virtually indistinguishable from beef while who's ever known what meat is in a curry or stir fry? Meantime a spokesperson for the Iguana population said they'd campaign vigorously for compensation for any motorists caught nicking their their roadside dinner.....

A's Hammer

C's Fraser

D's George

A's Match Report

Didn't get any feedback this week but gather the boys finished off Kincumber 5-0 to definitely book at least 3rd spot and a crack at Umina in the Finals if we get some luck with the injury list.

C's Match Report

A tough battle between the 2 best teams in the division was settled by a solitary goal midway through the 2nd half with a well organised Woy Woy hustling and bustling us out of our stride and finally cracking Aaron's goal. Could be a cracking Grand Final with Maxie's already planning their downfall with double training Wednesday!

D's Match Report

Not pretty but another toughly fought victory with several players away with the lurgy and several struggling with injuries. A fine pair of goals for Nige (20 & 21) and goals from John, Steve and a 25 yard cracker from George sealed a 5-1 win with some noticeable misses from the rest. Top of the table clashes next up, only 3 games to go!

Punters Club

No idea how we went this week as Kerry was off on a naughty weekend (presumably with Dell) but hoping we had money on Sri Lanka's Ajantha Mendis taking 25 wickets, Brazil Argentina and the Romans to progress in the olympic soccer and Portsmouth to lose the Charity shield ?.
